

KALEIDOSCOPE

A CELEBRATION OF ART, CULTURE, AND ENTREPRENEURIAL SPIRIT
IN THE DOWNTOWN EASTSIDE

Where? Rickshaw Theatre - March 27th 7:00 PM to 10:00 PM

Who is it for? The Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA) and Building Opportunities with Business (BOB) two organizations that have worked hard to help the residents and businesses of the Downtown Eastside.

Kaleidoscope is a celebration of the art, culture, and entrepreneurial spirit of Vancouver's historic Downtown Eastside. Taking place at the newly reopened Rickshaw Theatre (254 East Hastings Street) on March 27th it will feature live music, art, prize draws featuring local business sponsors and speakers from two non-profit organizations that have worked diligently in the DTES (Downtown Eastside). The efforts of both the Canadian Mental Health Association (CMHA) and Building Opportunities with Business (BOB) have been focused on the health and continued rejuvenation of our historic inner-city. All proceeds from the show will go towards supporting their important work. This will be an early show, doors at 7, with after-parties at local pubs and restaurants to follow.

Artists performing at this benefit will include (click name for more info):

RODNEY DECROO AND HIS CONVICTIONS
BOOMBOX SAINTS
SPOON RIVER
THE LEFT

Prizes from several sponsors will be raffled off between sets including a $250 gift card from John Fluevog and $160 Tattoo Time from Sacred Heart Tattoos.

For more information contact:

Wes Regan: 604-805-3591 wes.regan@bobics.org

Lex Llaguno: 604-771-6551 lex@nettwerk.com

Fraser Mackenzie: 604-417-0642 frasermack@gmail.com