*Who owns a dinosaur fossil?
A 1902 Lafite? An eight-passenger Bombardier?
These and nine other
whimsical but wow-worthy belongings are but the playthings of our high society
set. So guess who, don't swoon!

PRIZED DOCUMENTS

TEXT/LAUREN TAN PHOTOGRAPHY/JUSTIN LOH

It's easy to see why the owner of this collection goes by the moniker "The Historian". A heritage real estate specialist by profession, he has long been intrigued by Singapore's land history, and has numerous deeds and indentures that date back to the early 1800s.

One prized documentation even details the sale of land by Sultan Iskandar Shah — son of Sultan Hussein who ceded Singapore to the British. Lately though, The Historian has begun staking out international auction houses to expand the breadth of his collection. If you look closely enough, you'll notice that he has managed to secure documents bearing the signatures of Sir Thomas Stamford Raffles, Franklin D Roosevelt and Moses Taylor, all legends who have defined world history.
